God's People

Our Big Question
Why do some people do extraordinary things?

CAFOD
Just one world

Key Knowledge

- Christians belong to the 'Communion of Saints'.
- We are all called to be saints and there are some people who are given a special title of saint because of the life they led. We follow the saints as models and guides.
- Oscar Romero was an Archbishop in El Salvador. He spoke out about what was happening to the poor in his country. Even though he was afraid he would be killed, his faith helped him carry on. He was shot while celebrating Mass.
- We are created by God in His image and likeness. This means to love and care for others.
- St Teresa of Calcutta lived and worked with the poor in India. She started a school for poor children in the slums of Calcutta and a hospital for those dying on the streets.
- Martin Luther King spoke out against racial injustice.
- We should use our God given gifts to serve others.
- CAFOD is a charity that works with all people because God made all people equal.

Key Vocabulary and Definitions

Communion of Saints	The belief in the union of the Christian Church, both living and dead. They are all part of a single 'mystical body' with Christ at the head and each member contributing to the good of all.
justice	Fair treatment for everyone.
martyr	Someone who dies for what they believe.
peace	Agreement and harmony among all people.
saint	Those who follow God's way. Saints are like stained glass windows that the light of God is shining through into our world.
