"Be like Jesus. Be our best. Be Safe. Be Caring"

Ourselves

Our Big Question
Who am I?

Key Knowledge

- Christians are chosen by God.
- Christians are called to holiness and called to be peacemakers.
- We are created in the image of God – made to be like Him.
- The uniqueness of each person is a sign of God's love. We trust in God, that He will guide and protect; that joy in life comes from love of God and not material possessions.
- Mary is an example of trust in God we can follow.
- Maximilian Kolbe is an example of selflessness and love.

Key Vocabulary and Definitions

qualities	A distinctive characteristic associated with what somebody is like as a person.
talents	Natural aptitudes or skills.
unique	The only one of its type.
gifts	A special ability.
responsibility	Something you are expected to do.
dignity	Being valued and respected for what you are.
image	Being like something or someone else.
peacemaker	A person who works proactively to promote peace and justice.

Key Skills

- I can make specific links between the words of St Paul and the Christian's call to holiness, and between Hosea 11: 1-4 and God as a loving parent. AT1 (i)
- I can give reasons for many actions by believers, such as Maximilian Kolbe, as a consequence of their belief in a call to holiness and using their talents. AT1 (iii)
- I can make links between beliefs about who I am, my talents and qualities, and how they affect behaviour. AT2 (i)
- I can compare most of my own and others' ideas about questions of who I am and how I use my talents and qualities. AT2 (ii)
- I can express a point of view and give a reason for it, supporting it by making links to a different source. I can express a preference. AT3

We are in Ordinary Time

The colour for Ordinary Time is green. It is a time when we continue to grow in God's love. Through the Gospels, we are journeying with Jesus on his mission.
